MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE ADMINISTRATIVE RECORD UNDER SEAL

The Prudential Insurance Company of America ("Defendant") moves this Court for leave to file the administrative recorder under seal.

Defendant states that documents within the administrative record contain confidential personal information, including medical records/health information and other personal confidential information, which if made public could harm Plaintiff's interests. Defendant has consulted with Plaintiff's counsel, and Plaintiff's counsel consents to these documents being filed under seal.

WHEREFORE, Defendant requests that it be granted leave to file the above-referenced documents under seal.

This 7th day of April, 2010.
